tion leaders, nearly all of the men who were The Secretariship of State. - Among the most realous and active and prominent in the late Republican movement were recently the thousand and one conjectures upon the sub-ject of Mr. Buchanan's Cabinet we notice the among the most energetic and efficient and por ular Demociats of the North. They carried njecture that Mr. Marcy will be retained in with them iato the Republican ranks the mas the Secretaryship of State. Not only is this coundently expected in certain quarters, but, of their former adherents and followers, and the result may now be seen. The counties i if protestations go for anything, it is strongly which the Democracy have hitherto baer strongest have given the largest majorities to red. Possibly, indeed, the wish may be father to the thought. However this may be the anti-slavery candidates, and whole States the thought is abroad, and warmly welcomed which were wont invariably to go Democratic by uot a few.

Nevertheless, we are persuaded that it will have gone Republican by unprecedented and overwhelming majortties. For years past, in prove utterly vair - and for reasons that appear to us perfectly unanswerable. Mr. Marcy, in evary Presidential contest, it has been the custom of the Southern Democracy to appeal to all the qualities of a public character, except the sectional prejudices of the people of th perhaps those of adroitness and duplicity, is South and to stigmetize their opponents a the direct sntither is of Mr. Buchanan, and can Abolitiouists. Thus they calumniated the glo really have no sort of sympathy with the man rious old leader and wise statesman and tru or his opinions. They are as unlike and as unpatriot, Menry Clay, in 1844. Although Gen combinable es oil and water. Mr. Marcy, in Tsylor was himself the owner of more than one hundred slaves, he too was decried by the apite of his occasional demagogism, is unquesenably one of the most conservative men of Sonthern Democracy as the candidate of as Abolition party in 1848. In the campaign o his party; while we have seen that Mr. Buchanan, notwithstanding his native cautiousness, 1852, Gen. Scott was denounced as an Abol capable of the most insane and reckless appeal tionist by all the Democratic organs and Dem to the popular passions. Mr. Marcy, with al peratte stump-speakers in the South. And is his supple capitulation upon the Nicaragua question and acme others, has no contemptible the recent canvass the Southern States wer flooded with lying Democratic pamphlets amount of back-bone; whilst Mr. Buchanan is charging that the honest and high-sonier oriously as facile and compliant as a reed. s'a'esman, tha s'ern and devoted patrioi, Mi Mr. Marcy, moreover, is a man of considerable nerve and spirit. He would be prompt to strika at the North, he was everywhere denounced as iard Filimore, was and is an Abolitionist, while if he were trampled upou, and pretty apt to an ultra pro-slavery man by the natural allie anarl if he were threatened. Mr. Buchanan, of the Southern Democracy. on the contrary, is essentially orlinging and Maauwhile the Democratic party in the Sout mean-spirited, and would truckle to the last dehas always claimed to he the peculiar guardian gree of abjectness. Mr. Marey has many of of Southern rights, and has falsely assumed that the best qualities of a eterling Old Fogy, and its Northern wing was the able dependence of is not ashamed to confess it; Mr. Buchanan h the Southern States to maintain su equality few of those qualities, and is ashamed of what with the North in the dispensation of the Fed he baa. Mr. Marcy, it must be acknowledged. eral Government. possesses something of the wiedom and grace of age, and wears it modestly yet proudly The people of the South may now see hor prehable was and is that Northern Damocracy Mr. Buchanan affects the dazzling follies of which they have been induced to look upon as the ark of safety for Southern institutious. By youth. Mr. Marcy, in short, is a man of sonse and dignity, if not a statesman; Mr. Buckanan is simply a crafty and stilly old politician. There far the larger portion of it has openly embraced abolitionism, and was found in the recent conis an irreconcilable chaem between their nat test among the loudest "Freedom Shrtekers," There is no kind of harmony between them. They leading the Fremont column. Even that par are cast in radically different and antagonistic of the Northern Democracy, which supported moulds. They would never pull together i the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention, rs Mr. Buchanan could not retain Mr hed under the banners of "Buck and Breck and Marcy in the Secretaryship of State with any Fage Kaneas." Within the very bosom of the reasonable prospect of future concord. It Democratic party the elements of domestic dis would be planting a sharp and long thorn in cord, which have so recently convulsed the the side of his administration at the outset. Union from centre to circumference, were en But he wouldn't retain him if he could gendered. From that conglomeration of anti-One must be ignorant of the recent diplopodal factions, from that mass of festering matic history of the country or of the political corruption, have issued the anti-slavefor a moment that he would. If the public has and the disunion madness of the Southern fira-eaters. The people of both sections have ber again deceived by this Janus-faced Democracy forgotten Mr. Marcy's calm but cutting and hing reply to the Ostend Manifesto Mr. Buchanan most certainly has not and never but its days are already numbered. It so it is days are already numbered. It so but its days are already unmbered. Its old lifetime. Every one of the signers of that in-transparent to escape detection. The South has only to examine late the anteceder's of the stroke. Under its stinging edge Mr. Soule, as Northern anti-slavery leaders and the course of everyhody must remember, threw up his misslon in a fury, and if Mr. Buchanan clung tenaciously to his it was not because he felt the and recklessness of the modern Democracy eproof less keenly but because he lacked the The only ties by which its Northern and South manliness to resent it openly. He fawned upon the band that smote him, but his heart shed love of power and the cohesive attraction of venom over the memory of the blow. It has public plunder. Already a popular verdict has rankied in his bosom ever since, and it rankles been recorded against it, and when the public of the city of Leuisville, held Tuesday evermind has been allowed to recover from the secmind has been allowed to recover from the sectional agitation by which it has been recently pondence upon the late Enlistment question excited, the mass of the people of all the States cannot surely have forgotten the contemptuous will be found united upon the American platand withering rebuke which Mr. Marcy administered to Mr. Buchanan for his too prompt and full acceptancs of Lord Clarendon's famous demagogues that has brought such troubles and he remorselessly threw him for disregarding his express instructions in the case. S. sensibly, indaed, did Mr. Buchanan feel this has had a stream of visitora returning from the rebuke that he wrote home a special and most recent sale of lots at Emporium. There are abject dispatch confeasedly to place himself many of our citizens to whom this name is alrectue in curia." The humiliation was terri. together unfamiliar, or only associated with the ble, but the crown whose vision solaced his idea of one of those "towns on paper," dist' nservility was a splendld one, and he cheerfully guished from the surrounding forasts only oy a solitary blacksmith shop and an advanty geour this crown and is about to wear it, who supposes that he will divide its glory with the man who deliberately caused him to sacrifice his self-respect in order to win it? No, Mr. Bu.

and his friends might as well make up their minds to let him have it. He certainly doesn?! Situated on the banks of the Ohio, above high mouth of the Ohio, on wh. Premiership an inatant.

And we do not perceive any weighty public considerations that require him to do it. Mr Marcy has some claims to respect as a public months of age, has three day age age. It has been man, but they are not very unmerous or very commanding. We cannot at all subscribe to the fashionable opinion of his abilities. He is now year ago there were only seven persons liverage and experienced politician, with a ing there, it already numbers over seven hundred. an astate and experienced politician, with a certain or uncertain show of State and diplomatic craft, but, in any just sense, he is ueither a stateman nor a diplomatist. His unangement of our controversy with England, the iargest aubject he has had handle, proves this conclusively. It is not a space and the pains nor expense to make it out.
